

Book & selection rational overview for Music

		Autumn	Spring	Summer
KS1	Cycle A
	Reason for book selection	Chosen to explore the history of rap music for the topic 'Hey You' which is a Hip Hop song.	Chosen for the topic 'Rhythm In The Way We Walk', 'I Got the Rhythm' explores rhythm in the world around us and shows the children different ways we can play a rhythm.	Chosen for the topic 'In The Groove' in which children explore a variety of music genres. 'My Family Plays Music' is a book about each member of a family playing a different music genre.
	Cycle B
	Reason for book selection	'Bats in the Band' was chosen for the topic 'I Wanna Play in a Band' to introduce to children what a band is.	Chosen to support the teaching of Latin percussion instruments, 'Drum Dream Girl' focusses on a girl who dreams of playing congas and bongos.	The enjoyable story 'Alone' is a story of friendship, chosen for the topic 'Friendship Song'.

		‘The Story of Rock’ was chosen to explore the history of rock music, and covers the artists focused on in this topic.
LKS2	Cycle A
	Reason for book selection	A book linking music to the alphabet, ‘M is for Music’ is full of music vocabulary, artists, genres and instruments. This book was chosen for the topic ‘Let Your Spirit Fly’ which covers a variety of music genres.	Chosen for the Bob Marley topic ‘Three Little Birds’, ‘Who Was Bob Marley?’ tells the story of Bob Marley’s life.	Chosen for the ABBA topic ‘Mamma Mia’, ‘The Story of ABBA’ is an unofficial biography of the pop group written for children.	Chosen to explore instruments, sounds, rhythm and dance through the fun of disco music! ‘Disco at the Disco’ was chosen for the topic ‘Bringing Us Together’ which focuses on the genre of disco.
	Cycle B
	Reason for book selection		Chosen to explore instruments from around the world for the topic ‘The Dragon Song’, which covers the names of different instruments from different countries and cultures.		Chosen for the Beatles topic ‘Blackbird’, ‘Fab Four Friends’ tells the story of the pop group the Beatles.

	Reason for book selection	An enjoyable story about a fox and his ukulele to support the teaching of the ukulele.
UKS2	Cycle A
	Reason for book selection	Chosen for the rock topic 'Livin On a Prayer', 'What is Rock and Roll?' explains what constitutes rock music and follows its history.	'Sweet Music in Harlem' is a story that captures the energy and excitement of a magical time in Harlem's jazz history. This supports the topic 'Jazz 1'.	Chosen for the Adele topic 'Make You Feel My Love', 'Adele: the girl with the golden voice' is an unofficial biography of the pop artist written for children.	The Kidzter kids have fun with music history! A fun story where the Kidzter kids visit Motown in the Sixties to support the Motown topic 'Dancing in the Street'.
	Cycle B
	Reason for book selection	Chosen to explore the history of Hip Hop music for the topic 'Fresh Prince of Bel Air'.	Chosen to introduce children to a famous jazz musician for the topic 'Jazz 2'. This is a picture-book biography of jazz great Melba Doretta Liston.

	Reason for book selection	An enjoyable story about a young prince and a djembe drum to support the teaching of the djembe.

