

Book & Selection Rational Overview for Read and Respond

EYFS	Half Term	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
	Book		Stickman	One Snowy Night	The Secret Path	The Smartest Giant in Town	Billy's Bucket
			 British Author Focus	 British Author Focus	 British Author Focus	 British Author Focus	 British Author Focus
	Reason for book selection.		Seasonal book to link with current learning. Comparing the similarities and differences between language in both Julia Donaldson books.	Seasonal book to link with current learning. Comparing the similarities and differences between language in both Nick Butterworth books.	Seasonal book to link with current learning. Comparing the similarities and differences between language in both Nick Butterworth books.	Seasonal book to link with current learning. Comparing the similarities and differences between language in both Julia Donaldson books.	Allows children to develop their imagination and expand on their vocabulary whilst using inference skills.

KS1	Book	Lost and Found	Scaredy Squirrel	George's Marvellous Medicine	The Twits	The Tunnel	The Owl Who was Afraid of the Dark.	Fantastic Mr Fox

	Reason for book selection	Early picture book to encourage deeper inference skills to develop.	Early picture book to encourage deeper inference skills to develop.	Encourages the understanding that actions have consequences- we need to be responsible for our actions and think before we act.	Explores the theme of respect and how disrespect/respect makes other people around us feel.	Early picture book with intertextuality to encourage deeper thinking.	Early readers novel. Following the journey of a character overcoming their fears.	This book raises questions about our moral intuitions about stealing and the ethics of care.

LKS2	Book	Bill's New Frock	Wreck of the Zanzibar	Iron Man	Journey to Jo'Burg	Coraline	Firework Maker's Daughter	Water Horse

	Reason for book selection	Thought provoking theme exploring how boys and girls may be treated differently.	This book explores some difficult topics such as: abandonment, isolation and loneliness, yet still ends on a happy note.	Explores the theme of inclusion, teaching children not to fear people who are different to themselves, but to learn to understand and accept them.	Explores topics such as segregation in a period of history, also encourage discussions about different family dynamics.	Encourages discussions about appreciating what you already have and not trying to be like other people.	This book teaches the message that we make our own paths in life. If we want to achieve something then we need to believe in ourselves and work for it.	This book inspires children to use their imagination through the experiences of a young boy.

UkK2	Book	Wonder	Boy in the girls bathroom.
		  Democracy Respect & Tolerance	  Democracy Respect & Tolerance
	Reason for book selection	Explores mature themes about inclusion and exclusion due to special needs and disabilities. The story is told for multiple character's points of view allowing prosody and formality to be explored in depth.	Explores relevant RSHE topics such as inclusion, friendship and acceptance.					